LONGWOOD
A COUNTRY LODGE

Tariff

Longwood, in the heart of a premier wine-growing region, is reputedly New Zealand's largest private home. Historic and grand, it is nevertheless warm and welcoming in the best English country house style. Magnificent rooms, wonderful atmosphere and the gracious hospitality of the owners, make Longwood a very special experience. Wander the park-like grounds, with vast lawns and venerable English trees, retire to the Sunken Garden with a book, or play tennis, boules or croquet. At night savour the delicious eclectic meals served in the glorious dining room, or if you prefer, in the library, garden, or loggia. Sip world class Pinot Noirs and Chardonnays.

Finding your way • Longwood is 50 minutes by car or train from Wellington. Featherston is 5 minutes west and Martinborough 10 minutes east.

Accommodation • Four huge bedrooms with ensuites, canopied beds, antique furnishing and open fires.

Local Attractions • Martinborough vineyards are unique in being within walking distance of each other. Marguerite and Garrick know many owners personally and can arrange your tour. There are excellent golf courses in close proximity, and wonderful walks and places of historic interest. The seal colony and Pinnacle Rocks are two of the more outstanding natural sights.
